

Simple sentences have two parts. One part tells us what is happening. The other part tells us who or what is doing something. Look at the pictures and make a sentence that tells what is happening.

The baby sleeps.

